

The AATH Humor Academy (HA) Program
AATH Graduate College Credit and Certificate Program

Directions for obtaining university credit for the Humor Academy through Portland State University.

In cooperation with Portland State University (PSU) and instructor Dr. Barbara N. Miller, participants of the Humor Academy may obtain 3 graduate or undergraduate course credits by completing the following requirements:

1. Create a student online with PSU. The link will be provided to you during the annual conference. The cost of creating the account is $27, payable only by VISA or MasterCard.
2. Visit the PSU Odin Account Management System (ODIN) to set up your account.
3. PSU will bill students directly for the cost of the 3 credits - ($60 per credit). This amount will be paid by the participating student, and is separate from the 'Graduate Credit Registration' cost of the Humor Academy.
4. At the conclusion of the annual conference, students will write or design a reflection project to be submitted to the instructor, Dr. Barbara N. Miller. Details of this assignment will be provided at the annual conference. This assignment will be due by June 1 each calendar year. (Spring Quarter)

(Please note that quoted fees may be adjusted as per PSU.)

For further inquiries in regards to the credit portion of the Humor Academy contact Dr. Barbara N. Miller at mmlbarbara@pdx.edu

Questions about the Humor Academy?
Please contact Dr. Nila Nielsen, Humor Academy Co-director at ninielsen@me.com.

